

Educational seminar "Foreign workers in 2022" with the participation of Confidence Group

On May 23, a seminar was held on key issues of attracting foreign labor in 2022

Sofia Batura, Deputy General Director of Confidence Group, was invited as an expert in migration law to participate in the educational project of the Russian Foundation "Economics and Management".

On May 23, 2022, a seminar was held on the topic "Foreign workers in 2022: addressing the personnel, legal and tax aspects of the issue."

Sofia, the main speaker of the event, examined in detail all the processes related to attracting foreign labor in the current situation in Russia.

The program was planned for the whole day, so the presenter managed to highlight all the changes in the legislation and the peculiarities of labor relations with employees from other countries, innovations in the field of migration registration in 2022, interaction with government agencies of the Russian Federation (including documentary support), as well as other topics, such as digitalization and legal compliance.

During the period of frequent reforms in migration regime and the institution of citizenship, Confidence Group team continuously monitors official information and checks the effect of legal acts in practice. We keep you informed and updated on those topics through our news and events.

We congratulate our colleague on a successful event and sincerely thank the organizers of the project for the invitation.

As you may know, Sofia Batura is a well-known Russian expert in the field of migration legislation and law enforcement practice, a member of the expert commission on law enforcement practice in the field of migration of the Civic Chamber of the Russian Federation, a member of the expert council for the formation of proposals for amending legal acts and law enforcement practice in the field of labor migration at the initiative of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Russian Federation.
